

Nationwide AMMA Forums

Forum topics include:

- Bargaining under the Fair Work Act – are employers losing faith?
- Adverse action – the emerging iceberg?
- Individual Flexibility Arrangements (IFAs) – what will they look like in future?
- Implementing the new Paid Parental Leave Scheme - to what extent can existing schemes be offset against the new entitlements?

More than half of Australia's resource sector employers who have engaged in enterprise bargaining have experienced difficulty negotiating under the new Fair Work Act. Join AMMA as we share our members' experiences dealing with unions for the first time, highlight key developments in good faith bargaining over the past 12 months and look at what the future holds.

Our expert presenter, Geoff Bull, AMMA's Director of Workplace Policy, along with other AMMA workplace relations specialists, will discuss AMMA's strategic policy initiatives arising from a review of the first 12 months of the new laws.

AMMA has been at the forefront of working with the new workplace relations legislation. Attendance at this forum will provide a first-hand insight into how these developments will affect you and your operations.

Also hear about the new Government funded Paid Parental Leave Scheme passed into law on 17 June 2010, providing the primary carer of a new-born child parental leave for up to 18 weeks at the national minimum wage.
