EMPLOYMENT NEEDS

CONSULTING SERVICES

AMMA Workplace Consulting Services deliver high level strategic and operational advice specifically tailored to the Australian resource industry with a focus on workplace relations, human resources and employment law.

Our consultants draw on their unrivalled industry knowledge and experience when working with your team to provide solutions to the wide range of workplace challenges and complex regulatory issues you may face.

We understand the nuances of the resource industry and offer true flexibility in professional engagement, becoming part of your 'people' and being there for you when you need us.

WORKPLACE CONSULTING : HOW WE HELP

With an intimate knowledge of the sector and many years of industry-specific experience, the AMMA Workplace Consulting team can deliver for you.

- We supply you with consistent, accurate, and credible workplace advice and information, supporting your team through simple or more complex matters.
- As the Australian resource industry leader in workplace relations, policy and consulting, we can keep you informed of pertinent industry issues, important legislative changes and case law outcomes impacting your business.
- We provide assurance in our ability to support you through our historical track record of active involvement and participation in the resource industry workplace relations arena.

- Our commitment is to get underneath your issues and gain a deep understanding of your specific needs.
- For us, it's about tailoring solutions to get you the right outcomes. We can also bring our capability to you on-site on retainer or as a secondment for as long as you need.
- Our service is available to all resource employers at highly cost-effective and competitive rates. In addition, AMMA members receive exclusive member-only rates.

Our experienced team has an enviable track record of active involvement and participation in the resource industry. When you work with AMMA for your workplace consulting needs, you're in good company.
